

FISCAL NOTE

SB 2421 - HB 2429

January 13, 2006

SUMMARY OF BILL: Specifies that no governmental or other entity authorized to exercise the power of eminent domain may do so if the taking is for the sole or primary purpose of economic development or redevelopment. Additionally, the bill places the burden of proving that a taking is not for such purposes on the entity exercising such power.

ESTIMATED FISCAL IMPACT:

Other Fiscal Impact – Changes in property tax collections could occur as a result of this bill. Currently, if an entity acquires property through the power of eminent domain there may be a change in tax status as the property changes from a taxable parcel to a tax exempt parcel. If the taken parcel is subsequently leased to a private entity, in-lieu of tax payments may be negotiated with the private entity. The amount of such payments can vary according to individually negotiated circumstances and may differ from the amount of tax collected prior to the government taking. Under this bill, such transactions would no longer take place. The property tax revenue impact cannot reasonably be quantified due to the unique circumstances of each taking.

Assumptions:

- Industrial development boards are authorized to use the power of eminent domain to take property. Staff has been unable to find any instance of industrial development boards utilizing this power to date.
- The use of the power of eminent domain for traditional purposes such as the construction of roads would be a permissible public use, rather than promotion of economic development, and would therefore continue.
